

David Byron

FSA, MAAA
Actuary

---

CURRENT RESPONSIBILITY

David Byron is an actuary with the Health Practice in Milliman's Seattle office. He joined the firm in 2020.

EXPERIENCE

David has 15 years of experience working with payers, providers, and employers as a health actuary. His recent work includes:

- Provider contracting and reimbursement
- Network and ACO development
- ACO risk management and financial forecasting
- Value-based care
- Analytic and reporting solutions

Prior to joining Milliman, David worked at a major employee-benefit consulting company where he advised large employers and evaluated the financial impacts associated with benefit design, budgeting, forecasting, and reserving.

David brings a payer-perspective from his experience working at a regional Blue Cross Blue Shield plan. His work supported one of the country's largest and longest-running private payment reform initiatives, which still exists today. In addition, he managed the individual and small group market medical portfolio including design, innovation, and pricing.

PROFESSIONAL DESIGNATIONS

- Fellow, Society of Actuaries
- Member, American Academy of Actuaries

EDUCATION

BA, Mathematics - Actuarial Science,
University of Connecticut