

Timothy L. Connor

FSA, EA, MAAA

Principal, Consulting Actuary

CURRENT RESPONSIBILITY

Tim is a principal and consulting actuary in the Little Falls, New Jersey office of Milliman. He joined the firm in 2002. Tim frequently presents on pension risk-related topics. He serves both corporate and multiemployer clients.

EXPERIENCE

Tim has 20 years of pension and employee benefits experience. Prior to joining Milliman, he worked for the New York office of USI Consulting Group.

Tim's areas of expertise include defined benefit plan design, funding and administration issues, multiemployer rules and regulations, withdrawal liability, pension accounting requirements, and plan compliance. He also consults with plan sponsors with respect to pension de-risking, mergers, asset liability modeling, nondiscrimination testing, defined contribution replacement plans, nonqualified plans, and other postemployment benefit plans. Tim's clients include law firms, corporations, not-for-profits, and multiemployer plans (i.e., Taft-Hartley funds) in various industries.

Tim has served on both the Milliman Corporate and Multiemployer Strategic Planning Groups, and formerly chaired Milliman's Pension Risk Task Force for corporate defined benefit plans.

PROFESSIONAL DESIGNATIONS

- Fellow, Society of Actuaries
- Enrolled Actuary, ERISA
- Member, American Academy of Actuaries

PUBLICATIONS

- Contributing writer to Milliman's Multiemployer Pension Funding Study.
- Editor-in-chief of Milliman's Pension Risk Perspective, a periodical focused on defined benefit risk-related topics.
- Regular contributor to the Milliman-sponsored retirement issues blog, www.retirementtownhall.com.

EDUCATION

- BS, Statistics and Biometry, Cornell University

