

Andrew Jackson

MBA
Consultant

CURRENT RESPONSIBILITY

Andrew Jackson is a consultant with the San Diego office of Milliman. He joined the firm in 2020 and has been working in the pharmaceutical and healthcare industry since 2006.

EDUCATION

- BS, Chemistry, University of California, San Diego
- MBA, Business Administration, University of Minnesota

EXPERIENCE

Andrew has previously worked as a consultant for UnitedHealth Group's (UHG) OptumInsight Commercial Consulting division. He has supported pharmaceutical, payer, and provider clients in a wide variety of engagements including market access, competitive landscaping, drug pricing, and Medicare value-based arrangements. Prior to joining UHG, Andrew spent time at Merck and other biopharmaceutical firms as a drug development chemist.

Andrew's experience includes:

- Market access strategy
- Clinical intervention design
- Provider education
- Patient education
- Strategic pricing
- Real world evidence generation
- Program management